

Urology Physician Update

March 2023

Patient Care

Novel procedure to treat prostate cancer

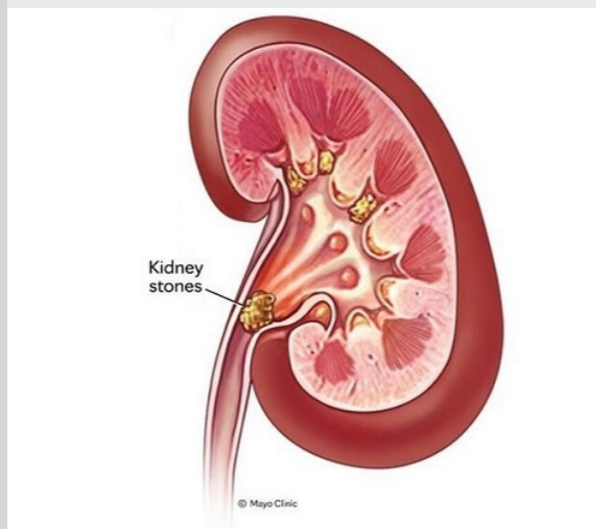

The transperineal approach involves passing needles through the perineum versus the rectum, which significantly lowers the risk of infection and improves precision.

Learn more

See more Urology news

View Urology specialty videos and Grand Rounds presentations

Research

Federal grant awarded to study kidney stone disease

Mayo Clinic urologist Kevin Koo, M.D., M.P.H., was awarded a three-year research grant from the NIDDK to study the role of inflammatory pathways in kidney stone formation.

Learn more

See all Urology Clinical Trials at Mayo Clinic

Education

Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development offers live courses, livestreaming courses, online continuing medical education (CME) courses and podcasts to meet your CME needs.

See all Urology Continuing Medical Education courses

Robotics and Advanced Surgical Technologies

April 14-16, 2023
Orlando, Fla., and Livestream

The first annual Mayo Clinic Robotics and Advanced Surgical Technologies symposium provides updates on many surgical and medical disciplines, with a focus on robotics and other technological innovations that are causing paradigm shifts in the delivery of health care.

Register Now

EDGE Talks 2020: Endourology Talks & Updates Online CME Course with Audit Option

Available until May 30, 2023
Online CME Course

This online series discusses the use of holmium lasers in urology for the management of various diseases, with a focus on the management of urolithiasis and benign prostatic hyperplasia.

Register Now

COVID-19 Updates and Resources

Read more

Consults and Referrals

Phoenix/Scottsdale, Arizona
866-629-6362

Jacksonville, Florida
800-634-1417

Rochester, Minnesota
800-533-1564

Online Referrals

Resources

Life-Changing Careers

Clinical Trials

Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development

Comments?

We're interested in your feedback about this newsletter.

Pass It On

Invite a friend to subscribe.